

“Supporting the Development of a United Nations-Based Knowledge Sharing Mechanism for Climate Technologies”

Rome, January 22nd, 2015

ENEA, Lungotevere Thaon di Revel, 76 - ROME

Agenda

h. 9.30 Registration

h. 9.45 Welcome greetings by the General Director of the Italian Ministry for the Environment, Land and Sea and by the Director of ENEA

Introductory Session

h. 10.00 “The UNFCCC Technology Mechanism and the work of the CTCN” – Karsten Krause, European Commission

h. 10.20 “The CTCN & the opportunities for technology providers in the EU” – Manfredi Caltagirone, UNEP

h. 10.40 “The role of ENEA as Italian NDE and its experience within CTCN” – Sergio La Motta, ENEA

Simulation of CTCN offering process

The simulation activity enables participants to acquire knowledge and comprehension of the process of demand-offer matchmaking within the CTCN.

h. 11.00 Breakout sessions - simulation activity part 1

Session A

Adaptation success story and simulation of offering proposal preparation

Session B

Mitigation success story and simulation of offering proposal preparation

h. 12.30 Wrap-up session - simulation activity part 2

h. 13.00 Example of actions where EU research or development cooperation programmes have been successfully used to co-finance public-private research and innovation projects or knowledge platforms – PROSOL, D'APPOLONIA

h. 13.30-14.30 Lunch Break

h. 14.30 “Patent Information to support dissemination of climate change friendly technologies” – Gerard Owens, EPO

Round Table Session

Technologies selection process will be presented through a round table that will explain the different steps, thanks to the direct involvement of the institutions. Stakeholders will participate in the session with questions, feedback and ideas.

h 15.00 Technologies selection process – round table

h. 16.30 Wrap up

h. 17.00 Conclusions

hosted by: